

Marshalltown Community College
Continuing Education Conference Center, Rooms 610/612
3700 South Center, Marshalltown

AGENDA

- 9:30 am Registration
- 10:00 am Welcome from LWVIA President Mary Rae Bragg
- 10:10 am Welcome to Marshalltown & Session Preview
Rep. Mark Smith (D-Marshalltown) represents the area in the Iowa House, where he is the Minority Leader. He will share his thoughts on the upcoming session.
- 10:40 am Update from Secretary of State's Office
Dawn Williams, Director of Elections, Iowa Secretary of State
- 11:00 am Discussion of 2018 Priorities
Mary Rae Bragg, LWVIA President & Amy Campbell, LWVIA Lobbyist
- Review of Criminal & Juvenile Justice Committee Priorities
Karen Person & Jo Ann Finkenbinder
- 11:30 am Lunch/Networking/Announcements
- 12:10 pm BOTTLE BILL OUTLOOK 2018: Legislative Perspective
Rep. Andy McKean (R-Anamosa), Vice-Chair of House Environmental Protection Committee
- 12:30 pm BOTTLE BILL PANEL: Perspectives on Iowa's Deposit Law
Troy Willard, Owner of The Can Shed LLC, will speak on behalf of the Iowa Recycling Association and offer its perspective on Iowa's current bottle bill and opportunities to improve redemption.

Matthew McKinney, Brown Wlnick Law Firm, will talk about the Selzer survey on Iowa's bottle bill, and the need to adopt a "better bottle bill."

David Jones, Mayor of Atlantic and former owner of MCF Redemption, will talk about his experience and will offer ideas to improve Iowa's collection system.
- 1:30 pm Next Steps - Turn in Evaluations – Adjourn @ 2 PM